Relevant Work Experience

• From August 2008 I've been working at YMCA Parthenope ONLUS, a non-profit organization from Italy, I organized and implemented trainings, seminars and youth exchanges. As trainer my role in this projects is to organize activities about team building, trust and cooperation between participants, I use different tools from outdoor until Media, like photos and videos. I also work as coach for small groups of students coming to Italy with the Erasmus+ VET project, helping them to get familiar with the new reality and reaching the greatest learning outcomes from this experience. As Project Manager I follow all the different phases, from writing the grant application, to the implementation of the course until the final report. Since a few years I'm cooperating often with the association ReCreativity, together we created a project called "Advertising The Change", we organize educational programs all over Europe combining the tools of creative recycling and media, I also realize for them photo shootings and videos during the projects realized in Hungary. Another of the project created together is called "Budapest Conscious Cinema", we organize movies screenings about social awareness and environment protection.
